Restorative Justice League Program for Merced City Middle Schools

This year with the implementation of the RJLP across Merced City School District's middle school sites Tanaya MS, Cruickshank MS, Rivera MS, Hoover MS. This program catered to 416 students since the first quarter. We're offering restorative lunch circles and positive alternative activities. We also provide a social emotional multi-tier system of supports for students, staff and parents. The program aimed to foster a supportive and constructive environment, reinforcing the principles of restorative justice and enhancing student well-being.

*Report: Social-Emotional Training and Preparation for Restorative Justice Youth Conferences

Overview of the Program

The Restorative Justice League (RJL) is committed to fostering the development of social-emotional skills and accountability in youth, equipping them to resolve conflicts, build healthier relationships, and actively contribute to positive school and community climates. Our center has recently completed a social-emotional training initiative 118 students, preparing them for participation in restorative justice youth conferences throughout the county.

Through this comprehensive training program, we have empowered 118 new student mentors with the skills necessary to positively impact their schools and communities. These young leaders are now equipped to take an active role in creating restorative solutions, fostering stronger relationships, and contributing to a more equitable and just environment.

Barrier Narrative- please describe any barriers or modifications required over the reporting period. This can include any partnerships or funding lost, the loss of key staff or volunteers, or additional internal or external complications. This narrative should be reflective of the data presented on page 1.

There have not been any barriers at this time. The city has been very supportive in meeting any needs or request we have made that will help in our continued success within the building.
