On 9/8 @ approx 9:45 my husband and I came back from the bank. His SUV + work trailer were in the driveway. To pull in to my driveway I had to maneuver in and out twice because a car was parked blocking part of my driveway. Cars had to stop in the street while I did this and weekdays are very busy on Canal because of the commercial offices.

Another issue is our garbage. Today (9/16/15) I saw my green waste was tipped over. I asked the driver in the car next to the can if he had done it, he said no.

I had to run errands, but knew he was going to knock it over on purpose. Sure enough I heard the garbage truck and looked out my window to make sure it was still standing. The guy was intentionally trying to hit^{it} with his car to tip it over. He was waving the garbage truck to go!! The garbage man (you know what I mean) was laughing in disbelief. When I ran out there yelling he took off.

But this is been going on as well.

Thank you,

Gina Love
