Interests & Experiences

Tell us about yourself, and why you are applying for this particular Board or Commission:

I have long been an advocate for the creative arts. I have worked with numerous publishers, authors, and artists to promote their works and publications. I believe that my experience as an organizer and advocate can help this Board make sure that the arts in Merced are nourished and thrive.

Please list your current employer and relevant volunteer experience.

I am currently the Digital Scholarship Librarian at the University of California, Merced. For over two decades, I have been heavily involved in a number of literary initiatives, some of them international. I have experience organizing literary and arts events; I have given numerous talks and workshops; and I have been a tireless advocate for the literary arts in several communities across the US. I have been the editor of a small publishing project since 1997, and, as part of that project, currently edit a literary arts journal dedicated to works in translation. These projects illustrate my dedication not only to supporting the creative arts, but also my dedication to supporting and promoting a diversity of voices from countless parts of the world.

What is your understanding of the roles and responsibilities of this Board or Commission?

I understand the values that a board like this brings to a community, and the importance that the creative arts have in helping to define, and renew, a community's sense of value. By supporting community members' creative aspirations, and by promoting events and other programming centered on the creative arts, a board such as this one provides avenues through which a community's vision can be advanced.

Do you have experience or special knowledge pertaining to this Board or Commission?

Aside from my previously noted editorial and creative work, I also have experience, through my current job, in thinking about the challenges present in things like the preservation of cultural works. I have also had extensive experience in designing and creative promotional and outreach materials, both print and online.

Any other comments you would like to add that may assist the City Council in their decision?
