

Sec. 707. - Planning commission.

There shall be a City Planning Commission consisting of seven members to be appointed by the City Council from the qualified electors of the City, none of whom shall hold any paid office or employment in the City government. The number of members to comprise the commission may be changed by Ordinance of the City Council to not less than five nor more than nine members.

The services of the City Engineer, City Attorney, Chief Building Official, Director of Development Services and other City staff shall be made available to such commission.

(Amended November 6, 2007).

Sec. 711. - Recreation and parks commission.

There shall be a recreation and parks commission consisting of seven members to be appointed by the city council from the qualified electors of the city and no member of said commission shall hold any paid office or employment in the city government. The number of members to comprise the commission may be changed by ordinance of the city council to not less than five nor more than nine members. In the event the city council contracts with other agencies interested in recreation and parks for the joint exercise of any of such functions, such contract may provide for representation on the commission of representatives of such agencies during the existence of such contract or extensions thereof.
