CITY COUNCIL PRIORITIES

The development of a new police station is a City Council priority.

DISCUSSION

The City owns property located at 301 East Yosemite Avenue in Merced. The property was purchased by the City on March 1, 2010, to be used as the location of a future new police station facility. The City is currently considering its options for the future police station facility. This resolution only sets the public hearing to consider the sale or lease of the property and does not commit the City sell or lease the property at this time.

IMPACT ON CITY RESOURCES

None for this item.
