Background

Shortly after the Vietnam War, Laotian refugees began arriving in the United States. According to the U.S. Census estimates, by 1980, the Laotian population in the United States reached 47,683, a number which more than tripled by 1990, to 147,375. In the 1980's, more than 10,000 of those Laotian refugees settled in the farming communities of the Central Valley, enriching its already-diverse population, and Merced was no exception.

In 1987, the Lao Association of Merced, in an effort to both preserve and showcase the rich cultural heritage of Laos, held Merced's first Lao New Year celebration, and again the following year. However, in the 30 years since, while similar events have been held by other cultures, the Lao New Year event has not been held.

The applicant, Sue Emanivong/ Lao Association, along with the Merced Main Street Association, seek to bring the event back this year, and continue it in April of each year here forth.

Event Description

The resurrected Lao New Year Celebration will contain two parts: a vendor fair, with food booths from different vendors, hosted by the Lao Association of Merced, and a procession, with cultural dance performances in front of Bob Hart Square at the Canal and W. Main Street intersection. Details of each of the two parts are explained separately below.

Specific features of the event as a whole are: "Giving Alms to Monks" (10:00 a.m.), procession with decorated floats (12:30 p.m.), cultural dance performances (approximately 2:00 p.m.), and a "Baci Blessing" (4:00 p.m.). The first and last events are traditional rituals observed by Buddhist and Lao communities; the former, traditionally performed by monks before the first meal of the day. The latter is a blessing ceremony performed to celebrate important events, such as the Lao New Year.

The applicant also requested the use of Bob Hart Square for one of their water blessing ceremony, through a separate submittal; because this event will not be serving alcohol, this request will be processed at staff level.

Vendor Fair

As listed above, the requested streets for this part of the event is W. Main Street between M Street and K Street; and Canal Street between W. Main Street and Arbor Lane (the alley between W. Main Street and W. 18th Street) (Attachment 2). Streets will close at 8:00 a.m. on April 13, 2019, and fully reopen by 6:00 p.m. The event itself is scheduled from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

After the closure of the street, Vendors will begin setting up for the day on both sides of W. Main Street and Canal Streets (Attachment 2), leaving a 22-foot-wide clearance area for emergency services.

The vendor fair will be open during the procession and performance portion of the event and will end by approximately 5:00 p.m.

Procession and Cultural Performances

As listed above, the requested streets for the procession portion of the event are: W. Main Street from M Street to I Street (Attachment 4). Streets will close at 8:00 a.m. on April 13, 2019, with the area between K and I Streets to be re-opened at 1 p.m., after the procession commences

The procession will begin at 12:30 p.m. Floats will proceed from Martin Luther King Jr. Way, along W. Main Street and stop at M Street. The floats will then park on W. Main Street and remain for the duration of the vendor fair, so event participants can take pictures in front of them. After the floats are parked, dancers that were riding on the floats will assemble and perform for spectators in the intersection of W. Main Street and Canal Street, in front of Bob Hart Square.

As stated above, at 1:00 p.m., following the procession, barricades on W. Main Street from Martin Luther King Jr. Way to I Street (including the intersection at K Street) will be removed, reopening those streets, and adjacent businesses, to through traffic. Barricades will remain on W. Main Street from M Street to K Street, and Canal Street from W. Main Street to Arbor Lane, for the Vendor Fair.

At least seventy-two hours (three days) prior to the street closures, the event organizers are required to notify nearby businesses and residences within one half-mile of the affected streets (Condition #8). To ensure this is done, event organizers are now required to provide staff with confirmation that this notification was given. To accomplish this, staff has prepared a standard form that the event sponsor shall complete, photocopy, and distribute to businesses and residences within the stated area (Attachment 5). A copy of this form shall also be signed and submitted to Planning Department staff, affirming that the required businesses and residences were notified.
